

University of Saskatchewan Facilities Management Division - Project Planning Process

STRATEGIC CAPITAL PLANNING

The life of a capital project moves between the Strategic Capital Planning Process and the Major Project Planning Process. The Strategic Capital Planning Process helps set priorities and create the long range development plan. The Major Project Planning Process ensures major projects are properly managed from inception through to construction. Together, these processes ensure we strategically meet the goals of the University of Saskatchewan.

MAJOR PROJECT PLANNING PROCESS

